LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL BUREAU

Nevada Administrative Code

Effective October 31, 2007, the following amendments were made to Chapter 656 of the Nevada Administrative Code.

NAC 656.120

The Board will no longer provide paper for examinees at the certification exam.

NAC 656.160

A passing grade on either section of the certification examination will be valid for the 2 succeeding examinations administered by the Board.

NAC 656.210

Each court reporter or designative firm representative shall complete 15 hours of continuing education per reporting period. At least 2 of these credits must include a review of the statutes, regulations and court rules governing the practice of court reporting in the state of Nevada.

Note: The Board will consider the following programs to earn continuing education credits on the subject matter of Nevada law; NVCRA 2008 Convention seminar on court reporting rules and regulations, court reporting seminars presented at CLE seminars and volunteers who support the certification exams. A home study or online course option is being researched and may be available at a later date. However, no such options are currently available.

NAC 656.250, NAC 656.270, NAC 656.280

Description of a designated firm representative and requirements to fulfill the role as a designated firm representative.
